State of the University address to be broadcast to Morris campus on April 1

Summary: Bruininks will speak on “Partnering with the State for the Public Good.”

(March 18, 2010)-University of Minnesota President Robert H. Bruininks will give the annual State of the University address on Thursday, April 1, 2010, at Coffman Memorial Theater on the Twin Cities campus. The address will be broadcast to all University campuses. At Morris, members of the campus and the community are invited to view the live broadcast in the Science Auditorium, Room 2950 in Science, at 3 p.m.

Following the address, “Partnering with the State for the Public Good,” members of the audiences from all University campuses may ask questions of President Bruininks.

The address will also be live video streamed. Visit the Office of the President’s Web page on April 1 to link to the streaming site.

For more information or to request special accommodations on the Morris campus, please contact University Relations at 320-589-6414.
